

KIS PTSA

Kelem International School's Parents, Teachers and Students Association (PTSA) is a structure that facilitates for the parents in the school to work together for the best possible education for their children alongside teachers and students. The PTSA supports the goals and mission of the school. It also supports the creation of a social network among parents and teachers to help build a sense of community. It will be a forum that facilitates students' engagement with parents and teachers on issues that matter to them and also an opportunity to hone their leadership skills.
